MARK SCHULTZ, CHRISTIAN MUSICIAN, PRO-LIFE EVENTS SPEAKER

Many know Mark Schultz as the platinum-selling, award-winning artist whose career has spanned two decades with thirteen #1 hits. He's garnered accolades like Artist of the Year, Songwriter of the Year, and Album of the Year and has appeared on ABC's 20/20, Extreme Home Makeover, and CNN's Morning Edition, but Mark would say that all of that pales in comparison to the honor of getting to share his own story of adoption with an audience.

Mark was adopted when he was two weeks old and raised by loving parents. And though he's never met her, he's grateful to his birth mother for giving him life. "She'll always be a hero to me," he says with a smile and tears in his eyes. Mark's hit single, "Everything to Me," a song about his life and gratitude to his birth mother, was the centerpiece for Bethany Christian Services ministry to expectant mothers.

"I wanted to write a song for birth mothers so they could hear how grateful I am to my own birth mom and how she made the choice to give me life."

And that's exactly how the song was used, to encourage expectant mothers across the country who were in crisis. Mark has a passion for benefit concerts because it's a chance to tell his story and to give back to the very organizations that helped save his life.

My role is to put a spotlight on the organization," he says, "And to have everyone in the room support them both prayerfully and financially.

Mark and his wife, Kate, have two boys and have recently adopted two girls. "It's amazing for me to be on this side of adoption," says Schultz.
